

England Trampoline Report Fliffus Cup Belgium 26th – 30th August 2009

The England Trampoline team competed at the 2009 Flanders Fliffus Cup that proved to be a very successful trip. This event was run alongside the World Cup which a hugely inspirational as Great Britain's Kat Driscoll was won the Ladies event. Of the 22 gymnasts selected to the England Trampoline team, 21 achieved a top eight place after the preliminaries and subsequently made the finals.

In the Youth Girls event, Kate Overman achieved 3rd, Lucy Alcock achieved 5th and Natasha Short claimed 7th place.

Youth Girls from left to right: Kate Overman, Lauren Sears, Lucy Alcock, Natasha Short and Daina Rose

In the Junior Girls category, Nicole Short took 3rd place and Sasha Carter claimed 8th place. In the Junior Synchronised event, Claire Stapenhill & Rebecca Finch won the event with Hanna Moses & Emily Steen reaching 4th place and Daina Rose & Lauren Sears 6th.

Junior Girls from left to right: Rebecca Finch, Claire Stapenhill, Emily Steen, Hanna Moses, Sasha Carter and Nicole Short

The Youth Boys competed well with three of the four making the final. Jason Ryall placed highest in 4th place closely followed by Daniel Fawcett in 5th and Philip Jackson in 6th place.

Youth Boys from left to right: Jason Ryall, Philip Jackson, Daniel Fawcett, Sina Abolghassem, Ryan Stickland and Zach Sheridan

The Junior Boys category was the most successful with England taking three places in the final and two places on the podium. After a tense final, Nathan Bailey claimed 2nd place after edging out team mate Luke strong into 3rd place. Daniel Greaves also performed well to take 6th place in a very high standard final event. In the Junior Boys Synchronised Trampoline event, Zach Sheridan and Ryan Stickland took 2nd place with compatriots Sina Abolghassem and Joe Berry achieving 3rd place.

Junior Boys from left to right: Luke Strong, Jake Chattaway, Joe Berry, Nathan Bailey and Daniel Greaves

